

Galter Librarian Jonathan Shank Receives Cross-Pollinator Travel Award

Electronic Resources and Libraries (ER&L) and the Digital Library Federation (DLF) have announced the recipients of two travel grants to the 2015 DLF Forum in Vancouver, BC, and one of them is the Galter Library's Jonathan Shank. Jon is our Acquisitions and Electronic Services Librarian.

The purpose of these grants is to extend the opportunity to attend the DLF Forum to two library professionals who would not typically be able to go, but who can envision and articulate a connection with their ER&L-related work and who see great value in building a dynamic and diverse peer network.

The cross-pollinator grants are also part of an ongoing effort to explore connections between these two communities.

Read more about the award and Jon's particular interests in attending the DLF Forum this year. Congratulations to Jon on becoming a 2015 DLF + ER&L Cross-Pollinator Travel Award Fellow!
