

Specters of the Past: A Pritzker & Galter Library Crawl

---

Featuring

Frankenstein: Penetrating the Secrets of Nature

Does art imitate life or does life imitate art? Explore the connections between real-life medical science and the fictional science of the novel Frankenstein. Galter Health Sciences Library atrium
Additional local exhibits are on display in the Eckenhoff Reading Room and Dollie's Corner
Frankenstein will be on display from 10/7 – 11/15.

Women on Trial: A Very Witchy Pop-Up

Learn more about historical witch trials in conjunction with our new exhibit, Lady Justice: Women in the Law in the IT Commons.
Pritzker Legal Research Center entryway

Between 10/28 and 11/1, all are welcome to visit both libraries, view the exhibits on display, and stop at the circulation desk in each library to collect a treat. Students enrolled in a Pritzker School of Law or Feinberg School of Medicine program can also fill out a raffle entry and ask for a stamp at each location.

Who's got more school spirit? Help your school win by turning in your stamped raffle card -- The school with the most cards returned by the end of the week will win bragging rights for this year's Library Crawl competition. In addition, each library will draw one winner to receive a special sweet & spooky treat.

Questions? Check in at the circulation desk at either library!

---

Printed: Friday, October 25, 2024 8:33 AM

Source: <https://galter.northwestern.edu/news/specters-of-the-past-a-pritzker-galter-library-crawl.pdf>